SCOTTISH CASTLES

Inveraray Castle, situated on Loch Fyne, close to Inveraray Village, is the seat of the Duke of Argyll, and is a modern building. Adjoining it are the ancient and picturesque ruins of the old castle, which was for many years the principal residence of the Campbells. The Castle is open to visitors on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 10 to 5 o'clock, when the Duke is not in residence. Inveraray is a favourite resort with lovers of the romantic. The neighbourhood is rich in the glorious mountain and glen scenery of the Highlands.
